

OKLAHOMA BOUND

MARCH 2022

The University of Oklahoma is home to 26,000 students Each week, Christian faculty ask God to spread the love and care of Christ to them.

Next week, Dorsey McIntosh, (right) who leads our global partnerships with Faculty Commons, will go with me to OU – his alma mater. We get to spend time with a few of those Christian faculty – to encourage and to discover how God is using them. We thought you might like to see our schedule.

There are many Christian professors at OU – we only have time with a few, but hopefully what we share with them can be passed along to others who sense God’s calling to academia.

And Then..

Later this month I will be at the University of Texas San Antonio with John Boudreaux (right, with wife Stephanie) who ministers to professors at LSU and Tulane. UTSA was once a very small school on the outskirts of town, but is now home to nearly 35,000 students.

Thanks for making all of this possible.
